

Ingram Hall Makerspace – Paying Invoices by Credit or Debit Card

Note: This method is only for student personal accounts and student organizations payments. If you are an academic department, program, or research group, your invoice will be processed via eIDT.

1. Once your invoice is received, navigate to the IHM e-commerce site. QR codes are also posted in PawPrint Studio.
2. Select the Invoice Payment item

3. Add the appropriate quantity so that your payment reflects your invoice charge

Discount Codes

1. On occasion, certain departments, programs, or organizations choose to sponsor student usage in the Ingram Hall Makerspace. These sponsorships occur in the form of promotional codes. These promotional codes may be shared with users through a variety of channels including email, the IHM web page, and social media.
2. In order to combine the promo code with your invoice payment. Add the item Invoice Discount to your cart.

3. Then add the Invoice Payment item to your cart so that the total cost of the cart equals your invoice amount. The example below shows a total invoice charge of $190.
